

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

J. P. M. Washington, D. C., October 3rd, 1893.

O. C. Bosbyshell Esq
Supt. Mint U.S.
Philadelphia Pa

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 2nd instant in which you state that the Assistant Comptroller has filed an official bond I desire to say that the records of this Bureau and those of the First Comptroller's Office show no evidence of any bond ever having been filed by him. You will, therefore instruct him to execute and forward one without delay. If your bookkeeper, Mr. Thompson has not filed a bond, as such, he will also be instructed to do so at an early day.

The Department will make no objection to bonds secured by a domestic guarantee Company if the Department blank form is used. but it will not permit the interpolation of new and harrassing conditions and provisos. It will only be necessary to show the standing of the Company to be good and that the party signing for same is duly authorized to do so.

Respectfully yours,

R. B. Preston

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 2nd instant in which you state that the Assistant Coiner has filed an official bond. I desire to say that the records of this Bureau and those of the First Comptroller's Office show no evidence of any bond ever having been filed by him. You will therefore instruct him to execute and forward one without delay. If your bookkeeper Mr. Thompson has notified a bond, as such, he will also be instructed to do so at an early day.

The Department will make no objection to bonds secured by a domestic guarantee company if the Department blank form is used, but it will not permit the interpolation of new and harassing conditions and provisos. It will only be necessary to show the standing of the company to be good and that the party signing for same is duly authorized to do so.

Respectfully yours,
R.E. Preston
Acting Director.
